Bob Neil Enabler Student Bursary – AUFC Club

Membership Fees paid in full – up to $338.50

Bob Neil is a former player with Adelaide University Football Club (AUFC). Bob started playing in 1974 and has played over 200 games in 20 years at the club. He has served in various capacities at the club as player, coach and committee member. A down-to-earth guy, the club adopted him as the official club legend because he represented exactly what the club stood for. Bob Neil is known as the only man in Adelaide who gets away with wearing grey shorts during the footy season (so that he doesn't need to change between black for home games, or white for away). Bob Neil is a hero to the common man.

The applicant must:

a) be a student proceeding towards a degree or diploma
b) be an active or seeking to be a financial member of Adelaide University Football Club
c) make themselves available for Adelaide University Football Club matches, including during university holidays, unless special permission is granted by the club.
d) not play for any other club, on loan or temporary transfer, during the period of the bursary, unless special permission is granted by the.

Bursary will be paid direct to Adelaide University Football Club on your behalf.

Bursary can be applied for by completing an application form in full at 2023 AUFC Bob Neil Enabler Student Bursary Application Form. Applications will not be considered unless an application is completed in full and all the required supporting documentation is received by Adelaide University Football Club. This is the sole responsibility of the applicant.

Assistance with completing the application can be found by contacting the General Manager, AUFC at manager@uniblacksfc.com.au or 0410 554 065.

Bursary will be determined in accordance with the following categories:

a) Able to demonstrate the need for financial assistance in order to continue to be or seeking to be become a financial member of the Adelaide University Football Club
b) Service to the Club Administration

Requirements for scholarship recipients

The Award of the scholarship will depend upon the recipient agreeing to the following:

a) Abide by usual University of Adelaide regulations
b) Comply with Adelaide University Sport and Fitness policies and those of Adelaide University Football Club
c) Maintain a high standard of conduct and bearing at all times when representing Adelaide University Football Club
d) Remain a student at their University during the bursary period